State Law Library to host health care workshop For immediate release Thursday, June 24, 2010

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – The State Law Library will present a free “brown bag” workshop titled “Health Care Directives” at noon on Wednesday, June 30.

The featured speaker will be Suzanne E. Messenger, State Long Term Care Ombudsman at the West Virginia Bureau of Senior Services. The session will focus on the legal choices a person may face in his or her own medical care decisions. Topics for discussion will include living wills, medical power of attorney, healthcare surrogate, and other advance medical directives.

The session is open to the public and no registration is required.

The workshop will be held in room E-215 of the state Capitol. Metered parking is available on California Avenue, behind the Culture Center and next to the parking structure on Piedmont Avenue. For more information, contact Sara Thompson at the State Law Library at (304) 558-2607.
